

A large, overlapping pile of various coins from different countries, including Brazil, Costa Rica, Guatemala, and others, scattered on a white background. The coins feature various designs, including portraits, national symbols, and text in Portuguese and Spanish. Notable coins include a large 500 Colones coin from Costa Rica at the bottom, a 1000 Guatemalan Quetzal coin on the right, and several Brazilian Centavos coins. The coins are of various colors, including gold, silver, and copper.