

Online Coins Auction #85

The image displays two views of a circular silver coin, likely a Spanish real. The obverse (left) shows the coat of arms of Spain, which is a shield divided into four quarters. The quarters contain a lion, a lion, a lion, and a lion. The shield is topped with a crown. The inscription 'CAROLVS SEPTVS' is visible around the border. The reverse (right) shows the monogram 'AFS' (for Philip IV) with a crown above it. The inscription 'FIDELITY' is visible around the border.
