Millennium Note

In celebration of the new Millennium, the Treasury Department's Bureau of Engraving and Printing proudly presents a unique Series 1995 $2 note that begins with the serial number 2000.

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Fort Worth, Texas produced 153.6 million Series 1995 $2 notes for the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta during fiscal years 1996 and 1997. These notes were printed for general circulation. At that time, there were no Series 1995 $2 notes produced for the other 11 Federal Reserve Banks. This Millennium Note is unique because no more than 9,999 Series 1995 $2 notes exist for any Federal Reserve Bank, except Atlanta.
