“I have found you a genius”

Manchester United Talent scout to Matt Busby, 1961

George Best marked a time in professional football that has never been matched for skill, tenacity and brilliance. During his outstanding years at Manchester United, he formed the greatest football trio of all time with Dennis Law and Bobby Charlton. George also delivered electric performances for Northern Ireland 37 times.

There are too many fine and outstanding performances to highlight. Too many anecdotes to touch on. You know your favourites. They form the best of sporting memories.

We are proud to present you with the George Best Commemorative Note to celebrate the outstanding sporting life of George Best. A unique human being. A genius.
